

IMPLEMENTATION PLANNING

name:

What information do you need to be able to work out your result?
What will stay the same, and what will change each time?

What do you need to ask the user? What information will they give you?

What information can you gather from elsewhere? What does your program need to know?

How will the user receive the result?

What do you need to do in your program to give the user a result?

